are: an Officer pointing, a Medic, two Firing, a Plasma Gunner, an NCO with night laser, two Assaulting, and one Firing While Kneeling. The tiny booklet enclosed includes a description of an officer character, a situation involving tech-12 mercenaries, and a sketch map of Trachon Starport.

The nine standing figures are appropriate for a squad. Details of the figures' elbow and knee joints, helmets, weaponry, and backpacks are well defined. The base of each figure is marked with an identifying number which corresponds to the picture enclosed in the box. Only about three points in the whole set of twelve figures have excess flash — quite frankly, the least I have ever found in a set of figures. The scenario enclosed sets up an action that is logical even for the small scope of the few pages presented. The page of figure illustrations included in the box is a real plus. In addition to the gaping hole in the chest of the Casualty figure is a look of bewilderment in the figure's eyes, as seen through the slot in his helmet.

The 25mm figures require redrawing from scale maps because there are no approved-for-Traveller maps at this scale. However, the difference in the ease of painting 25mm figures and the greater detail possible make this particular problem worth overcoming.

Getting picky, one can find two minor flaws. The first is that the prone figures have no detail on the bottom of their feet. The second is the lack of detail at the top of the 'Firing' figure's backpack, detail which is present in the other figures.

If you want 25mm figures for Traveller, other SFRPGs, or just to paint and display, then this set from Grenadier is well worth $10.

Feudal Lords

The original medieval pbm game of economic development, military conquest, and political intrigue.

Feudal Lords is a computer-moderated play-by-mail strategic game of power politics set in Arthurian England.

Each player is the lord of a medieval fiefdom seeking to become King against up to 14 other players and over 30 non-player lords controlled by the computer. To accomplish this task, a player may select from over 30 types of military, economic, and diplomatic orders each turn.

- The game is processed entirely by computer for fast, accurate, and impartial results.
- A two-page computer printout details each turn's economic results and reports all major battles fought.
- Armies may move by land or sea, limited only by the extent of their lord's political influence.
- Other features include random events, spies, vassals, trading, mercenaries, and more.
- Rated one of the four best pbm games as reviewed in issue #72 of the Dragon magazine!
